

Yato | Code YT-2449 | Sku 102449

Locking Pliers 125 mm

Overview

Morse-type locking pliers 125 mm long with rounded jaws. Designed for welding, locksmith, and assembly work. Features a screw adjustment mechanism for the opening, allowing the jaw spacing to be set according to the thickness of the material being gripped.

Key Technical Specifications

|                 |               |
|-----------------|---------------|
| Size            | 5"            |
| Length          | 125 mm        |
| Jaws type       | rounded       |
| Application     | welding       |
| Jaws finish     | nickel plated |
| Jaws material   | CrMo          |
| Finish          | satin         |
| Handle material | carbon steel  |

Key Points

- Morse-type locking pliers with rounded jaws
- Overall length: 125 mm (5")
- Screw adjustment for precise jaw spacing control
- Jaws made from CrMo steel with nickel-plated finish
- Satin surface finish on carbon steel handles
- Suitable for welding, locksmith, and assembly applications

---

Warnings

- Always use personal protective equipment when working.