

Yato | Code YT-38361 | Sku 1038361

EXTRA DEEP METRIC SOCKET SET 3/8" 6PCS

Overview

Reliable Extra Long Sockets for Special Tasks The professional YT-38361 socket set is your solution for deeply embedded screws. Ensure precision and a secure grip in every situation. Your Advantage in Challenging Workshop Conditions Effective loosening of deeply embedded screws and nuts, e.g., on bumpers or body panels Ideal for working in hard-to-reach places, ensuring easy access Indispensable for adjusting the handbrake cable in popular VAG, Opel, BMW, and Ford models Secure grip even on damaged and corroded components thanks to slightly convex surfaces and flared corners Hexagonal profile allows for greater torque transfer, making it easier to loosen seized connections Made from high-quality chrome-vanadium steel (CrV) for long-lasting durability and resistance Practical blow-molded case with fitted compartments for easy storage and transport Long sockets Secure grip CrV steel Hard to reach Strong profile Material: Durable chrome-vanadium steel (CrV) Total length of sockets: 120 mm, ideal for deeply embedded components Tool holder sizes: Universal 1/4" (6.3 mm) and 3/8" (9.5 mm) Socket sizes included: 8, 10, 12, 13, 14 mm – popular and practical Socket profile: Hexagonal, for optimal torque transfer Number of pieces in the set: 6 (5 sockets and a practical reducer)

Key Technical Specifications

|               |                              |
|---------------|------------------------------|
| Pcs           | 6                            |
| Brand         | Yato                         |
| Length        | 120 mm                       |
| Symbol        | YT-38361                     |
| Material      | CrV                          |
| Holder size   | 1/4" (6.3 mm), 3/8" (9.5 mm) |
| Socket size   | 8, 10, 12, 13, 14 mm         |
| Set includes  | 5x socket, reducer           |
| Producer code | 5906083114588                |

Key Points

- Effective loosening of deeply embedded screws and nuts, e.g., on bumpers or body panels
- Ideal for working in hard-to-reach places, ensuring easy access
- Indispensable for adjusting the handbrake cable in popular VAG, Opel, BMW, and Ford models
- Secure grip even on damaged and corroded components thanks to slightly convex surfaces and flared corners
- Hexagonal profile allows for greater torque transfer, making it easier to loosen seized connections
- Made from high-quality chrome-vanadium steel (CrV) for long-lasting durability and resistance
- Practical blow-molded case with fitted compartments for easy storage and transport
- Total length of sockets: 120 mm, ideal for deeply embedded components
- Tool holder sizes: Universal 1/4" (6.3 mm) and 3/8" (9.5 mm)
- Socket sizes included: 8, 10, 12, 13, 14 mm
- Hexagonal socket profile for optimal torque transfer
- Set of 6 pieces: 5 sockets and a reducer